EXHIBITIONS

17 - 24 APRIL 10.00 - 19.00 NMH Nye kantine, room 139

Ole Bull 1744 - Guarneri del Gesù Project
Norwegian Academy of Music, "Nye kantine"

Violinmakers from around the world are invited by Christophe Landon to make a copy of the Ole Bull 1744 Guarneri del Gesù violin to be displayed during the Menuhin Competition in Oslo April 2010. All copies may be looked at and can be played by competitors, students and visiting violinists.

The Hardanger Fiddle

The Hardanger Fiddle is often referred to as Norway's national instrument. From the collection of Kjell Chr Midtgaard, we have the pleasure of showing some of the greatest works in the art of Hardanger fiddle making, like a fiddle by Erik Johnsen Helland from 1862. Visiting violinists will also have an opportunity to play the instruments.

24 - 25 APRIL 11.00 - 20.00

The Line - a solidarity project

150 children from 15 music- and culture schools work together in a solidarity art project. Each child brings their own "line" to the project. These lines create joint works in sculpture and animation. Each student makes a connection with a child in Haiti and Afghanistan, who also will be making their own lines. The lines create bridges. The students are no longer students, but bridge builders.
